Agent in Charge
Federal Bureau of Investigation
West Palm Beach, Florida 33401

Dear Sir;

Yesterday - about noon - two agents of the Atlanta FBI office came to talk to me about possible charges involving checks I gave, to two business firms in the W.P.B area, in 1977.

I took the visit as a threat to me, as I believe it was. The visit, I was told, originated from a request from your office.

There are at least three witnesses in the W.P.B. area who can confirm I did not give the checks, with intent to defraud. Both checks were given with the understanding there were no funds available at that moment; But, were given as security until the funds were available; At which time new checks would be issued.

Sept 8, 1977 a suit was filed, against Central Intelligence Agency, by the undersigned, to recover a trust fund being held for the undersigned, recognition by CIA, and removal of all criminal charges on record against the undersigned.

During May and June 1977, President Carter's office was in daily contact with me, through Mr. [redacted] as many as three calls a day came from that office.

The calls were to instruct me, as to movement, assure me I would be retired, recognized and all funds belonging to me, would be returned.

Upon release from U.S.P Leavenworth on April 29, 1977, my first call was to [redacted] b6 b7C General Council CIA.) He gave specific instructions by word and letter. (Copy of that letter on file.) The letter instructed me to call [redacted] CIA, Miami. I did so. [redacted] gave me instructions, which I carried out, to the letter.

My confidence, at being retired and all other conditions met, was high. I felt no fear at expecting to spend thousands of dollars. Why should I? My trust fund amounts to more than a million dollars.

There are at least five witnesses to [redacted] calls, Mr Carters conversations with me, and all incidents relative to my situation from May 8, 1977 until July 13, 1977. b6 b7C

In the past three years at least a dozen Congressman and Senators, business executives, The Secret Service and many, many friends have tried to help me. The Secret Service got a statement from CIA in 1976 to the effect I had been a contract officer with CIA. I have copies of that confirmation. A N.Y Post reporter got a similar comment, by telephone, from CIA!

I ask you to look into my case, if you will. In 1976 I asked Director Clarence Kelley for the same help. I got no answer.

It is entirely possible the agents who came yesterday, came from Central Intelligence.

I am not going to stop the law suit against CIA. Not until I have in hand, a promise, signed by Adm. Turner, granting me the items enumerated.

Central Intelligence wants to shut me up. It would be very simple; Grant me those things I have named.

The events in Dallas in Nov 1963 are documented, almost in complete detail, in my journal. Those details can and will be just as damaging to FBI as to my former employers. I don't want to be the one responsible for publishing those details. But I will, if these threats and harassments are not stopped.

Very truly,
R.B. Cullyan

Dear Sir:

A man by the name of Roland B. Culligan has been representing himself around the Palm Beach area as having just retired from the CIA after 34 years service. He also states that his retirement is as a Major General in the USAF.

The reason for this letter is to ask your help in locating this man if the above information is correct. We are holding a bad check from him in the amount of $10,000 which he gave us as a deposit on a 65' Yacht. Fortunately he didn't get possession of the yacht but he does owe us money for bills incurred during the Marine Survey of the vessel. He also gave Schooley Cadillac, our local dealer, a bad check for a car in the amount of $7,500. I understand other local business people are looking for him for other various reasons.

I'm sure that if he is or is not a former CIA man that you will be interested in this information since he is using the CIA to give him credibility in these various dealings.

Any information that you can supply regarding him will be greatly appreciated.

Very truly yours

Miami, Florida

RE: ROLAND BERNARD CULLIGAN
IMPERSONATION

Investigation in this matter was instituted in the Miami Division of the Federal Bureau of Investigation upon receipt of a letter addressed to the Director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation from [redacted] Washington, D.C. This letter indicated that ROLAND B. CULLIGAN, born June 6, 1923, had represented himself as a retired employee of the CIA and a retired U.S. Air Force Major General in cashing two worthless checks in the West Palm Beach, Florida, area. b3 b6 b7C b7E

Investigation to date indicates that CULLIGAN, in May, 1977, representing himself as a Colonel in the United States Military in the process of being retired as a Brigadier General, purchased a 1975 Cadillac Coupe de Ville from Schooley Cadillac, Incorporated, West Palm Beach, Florida, at a cost of $6,952.80. CULLIGAN wrote out a check in this amount on account number [redacted] at the Singer Island National Bank, Riviera Beach, Florida, taking possession of this vehicle. This check was returned by the bank indicating "signature not on file". After much work on the part of Schooley Cadillac, Incorporated, salesman [redacted] in an effort to locate the vehicle and CULLIGAN advised the vehicle was returned to the used car lot of Schooley Cadillac, Incorporated by an unknown young white male. b6 b7C

[redacted] received a letter from CULLIGAN, postmarked Orlando, Florida, September 16, 1977 blaming the whole matter on the CIA and indicated he intended to sue the CIA and its Director, Admiral STANSFIELD TURNER. b6 b7C

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the Federal Bureau of Investigation. It is the property of the Federal Bureau of Investigation and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

RE: ROLAND BERNARD CULLIGAN

[redacted] noted that as a result of this matter, Schooley Cadillac, Incorporated lost approximately $400 in addition to the excess of 3,000 miles put on the Cadillac before it was returned. b6 b7C

Also in May, 1977, CULLIGAN attempted to purchase a 65 foot yacht from Spencer Boat Company, Incorporated, West Palm Beach, Florida, at a cost of $101,000.00. On May 17, 1977, CULLIGAN gave Spencer Boat Company, Incorporated a check in the amount of $10,000.00 on the above-described bank representing 10 percent downpayment on the yacht, signed an agreement to purchase the yacht, and agreed to pay balance within 10 days after acceptance of the vessel, which he did accept later that month. CULLIGAN during this transaction, represented himself as a CIA Agent with the rank of Colonel in the U.S. Air Force in the process of being retired, at which time he would be given the rank of Brigadier General in the U.S. Air Force. CULLIGAN, in fact, showed the [redacted] [redacted] at Spencer Boat Company, Incorporated, a white letter size envelope indicating a return address of CIA, Washington, D.C. The check given Spencer Boat Company was returned by the bank indicating "signature not on file". b6 b7C

As a result of this transaction, Spencer Boat Company, Incorporated, suffered a monetary loss of $461.40.

Investigation at Singer Island National Bank, Riviera Beach, Florida, indicated that account number [redacted] [redacted] is a checking account in the name of [redacted] alleged [redacted] The account was opened on April 21, 1977 and closed on November 3, 1977 due to lack of activity. CULLIGAN was not authorized to write checks on this account nor does he have any other account at this bank. Investigation also indicates that at no time did the checking account of [redacted] have enough money in the account to cover checks written by CULLIGAN, having only a high balance for the month of May, 1977 of $482.29. b6 b7C

[redacted] Yacht Sales, Ships Haven, Old Port Cove, North Palm Beach, Florida, telephone number 622-6600, [redacted] furnished the following oral information: b6 b7C

He formerly was employed as a Yacht Salesman and [redacted] at Spencer Boat Company, Incorporated, 4000 North Dixie, West Palm Beach, Florida, telephone number 844-0340 and had left Spencer Boat Company, Incorporated employment on October 24, 1977. b6 b7C

On approximately May 10, 1977, a man identifying himself as ROLAND BERNARD CULLIGAN, came into Spencer Boat Company, Incorporated Yacht Sales and inquired as to the purchase of a large live-aboard type boat. He showed him a 1948 65 foot Grebe, having the name, "Sea Bird". Although the original price on this boat was $95,000.00, the negotiated price and the price which CULLIGAN agreed to pay was $101,000.00. CULLIGAN, on May 11, 1977, signed a Yacht Purchase Agreement indicating that the purchase was subject to a Marine and Engine Survey and a trial run at the option of the purchaser.

On May 17, 1977, CULLIGAN gave him a check on the Singer Island National Bank, Riviera Beach, Florida in the amount of $10,000.00, ten percent of the purchase. This check was made payable to Spencer Boat Company, Incorporated and was later returned by the Singer Island National Bank, Riviera Beach, Florida with the notation, "Signature not on file". He described this check, a personal check presented to him by CULLIGAN as follows:

> A personal check dated May 17, 1977, made payable to Spencer Boat Company, Incorporated - Escrow A/C, in the amount of $10,000.00, on account number [redacted], on the Singer Island National Bank, Riviera Beach, b6 b7C

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

Florida, showing a signature of R. B. CULLIGAN, indicating ten percent on Sea Bird.

When CULLIGAN came in on May 10, 1977, he was alone; however, when he came in on May 11, 1977, and signed the Yacht Purchase Agreement, he came in with [redacted] b6 b7C He noted that he had picked them up at [redacted] office and took them to the boat, which was docked at Old Port Cove Marina, North Palm Beach, Florida at the time. He also noted that [redacted] had nothing to do with the boat and had just gone along to see the boat and for "the ride".

On May 17, 1977, CULLIGAN gave him the above described check in the amount of $10,000.00, representing ten percent of the agreed upon purchase price of $101,000.00. On May 19, 1977, CULLIGAN signed an Acceptance of Vessel form after the trial run and engine and marine surveys had taken place.

The engine surveyor was [redacted] b6 b7C Florida Diesel Marine, Riviera Beach, Florida, who was hired by Spencer to perform the survey at a cost of approximately $250.00. He is not sure of this exact cost. The Marine surveyor was [redacted] who was also hired by Spencer Boat Company, Incorporated at a cost of approximately $300.00. Spencer was out a total of approximately $550.00.

The above described check was returned by the Singer Island National Bank showing an unauthorized signature. As a result of Spencer Boat Company's transaction with CULLIGAN, a loss was sustained of approximately $550.00.

The only reason he took a personal check from CULLIGAN as a down payment for the boat was that CULLIGAN represented himself as an agent of the United States Government, claiming to be a Central Intelligence Agency (CIA) agent with the rank of Colonel in the United States Air Force in the process of being retired from the United States Air Force, at which time he would be given a promotion to Brigadier General. CULLIGAN even showed him a white letter envelope with the return address of CIA, Washington, D.C.

All of the paperwork on this boat purchased by CULLIGAN would be with Spencer Boat Company, Incorporated, as would be the original of the above described check.

He recalled that CULLIGAN claimed his attorney to be [redacted] of the Riviera Beach, Florida area. b6 b7C

He described CULLIGAN as follows:

Name:	ROLAND BERNARD CULLIGAN

Hair:	Short, kinky gray hair

Remarks:	Had no glasses and wore sports clothing

He definitely would recognize CULLIGAN again.

On May 17, 1977, he received a telephone call from a man identifying himself as Colonel CULLIGAN, who indicated he would be coming down that day to see him concerning the purchase of a Cadillac. Approximately two hours later, the man arrived at Schooley Cadillac, Incorporated and he showed him a 1975 Cadillac Coupe Deville, which CULLIGAN subsequently agreed to purchase. As there were some minor things to be fixed up on the vehicle, prior to delivery, CULLIGAN returned on May 20, 1977 and gave him a personal check in the amount of $6, 952.80, made payable to Schooley Cadillac. He noted that CULLIGAN wrote out the entire check except the portion indicating it was to be paid to the order of Schooley Cadillac, which he, [redacted] wrote out the name Schooley Cadillac. CULLIGAN then left with the vehicle. b6 b7C

Approximately four days later, the check was returned from the Singer Island National Bank, Riviera Beach, Florida, on which it was drawn, with the notation, "Signature not on file". He made available the original of this check, which was dated May 20, 1977 in the amount of $6,952.80, made payable to Schooley Cadillac, on Account number [redacted] on the Singer Island National Bank, Riviera Beach, Florida, signed R. B. CULLIGAN, with the notation, "Memo, Cadillac". On the face of this check was a block stamp with the notation, "Signature not on file". b6 b7C

He accepted the above described check from CULLIGAN, as CULLIGAN had represented himself as a Colonel in the United States Military Service, exact branch unknown, who was in the process of being retired as a Brigadier General. CULLIGAN had indicated to him that he was having difficulties getting separated from the United States Military Service because the "New Administration", wanted him to stay due to his vast knowledge and abilities. CULLIGAN gave a very good impression and he had no reason to doubt him. He believes CULLIGAN indicated that he was in the United States Air Force as an officer, but was not positive.

At the time of the purchase of the vehicle, CULLIGAN gave his address as 1530 Crescent Circle, Lake Park, Florida, with telephone numbers 844-7422 and [redacted]. b6 b7C

He made several attempts to contact CULLIGAN after the check was returned and finally made contact with CULLIGAN through [redacted] Riviera Beach, Florida. b6 b7C After talking with [redacted] CULLIGAN called him back two to three days later and said the car was at the United States Government Compound at the Palm Beach International Airport, West Palm Beach, Florida.

He made an extensive search of the Palm Beach International Airport and failed to locate either the United States Government Compound or the Cadillac.

He described the Cadillac as a 1975 Cadillac Coupe Deville, Vehicle Identification Number (VIN) 6D47S5Q127941, blue in color with white trim, having an odometer reading of 30,904 at the time it was purchased.

Approximately the first week of June, 1977, a young white male drove into the Schooley parking lot with the above described car, while he, [redacted] was on the telephone. This unknown young white male dropped the keys off in the car lot office, saying that the keys were for CULLIGAN's car, then ran out. b6 b7C

In checking the vehicle, he found it to be very dirty and noted that it had in excess of 3,000 miles put on the vehicle since it was purchased.

Schooley Cadillac, Incorporated is out approximately $400.00 as a result of their dealings with CULLIGAN.

In September, 1977, he received a letter from CULLIGAN, postmarked Orlando, Florida, dated September 16, 1977, in which CULLIGAN indicated that the whole matter was a result of his difficulties with the Central Intelligence Agency (CIA) and he was in fact suing the Director of the CIA, Admiral STANSFIELD TURNER and the CIA.

He furnished the following description of CULLIGAN:

Name:	R. B. CULLIGAN
Race:	White
Sex:	Male
Age:	Mid 50's
Height:	6'0"
Weight:	180 to 190 pounds
Hair:	Salt and pepper
Build:	Medium, muscular
Complexion:	Fair
Wife:	[redacted] b6 b7C
Residence:	1530 Crescent Circle, Lake Park, Florida telephone number 844-7422
Occupation:	Colonel in the United States Military Service, branch unknown
Associates:	[redacted]

[redacted] noted that at the time the vehicle was returned, it had a small photograph album. In this photograph album, [redacted] pointed out a picture of R. B. CULLIGAN, which he is retaining in his files. b6 b7C

He noted that the logical person to subpoena with regard to CULLIGAN's file at Schooley Cadillac, would be Schooley Cadillac's [redacted]. b6 b7C

At the conclusion of this interview, [redacted] made available a xeroxed copy of Schooley Cadillac's file on CULLIGAN with reference to the 1975 Cadillac purchase, a xeroxed copy of the above described letter, which is attached to this FD-302, along with a xeroxed copy of the original check, described above, as furnished by [redacted] These xeroxed copies are as follows: b6 b7C

Dear [redacted]

b6
b7C

I have enclosed a bit of information for you, so you will see one of the reasons I am up here.

Let me apologize — first — for the mess CIA made of a simple business deal, between you and me. There was no way I could prevent what happened.

As a matter of fact, I believe you were present when final arrangements were made for [redacted] and I to go to Plains, Ga. I was [redacted] the phone on your desk.

b6
b7C

I am suing CIA (Admiral Stansfield Turner, Director) for a number of things; My retirement, return of my trust fund and the removal of all criminal background placed against me.

b6
b7C

Beside President Carter, I am subpoenaing 27 other people and records, to substantiate my suit. I will not subpoena you or [redacted] of Spanish Boat Yard. However, if you care to help, in any way, I would appreciate that help.

b6

CIA made me to look like a fool. They tried to set [redacted] up in a shop lifting charge. She was totally exonerated, as I trust I will be, also.

b6
b7C

When this is all settled, I will be in to see you and maybe then we can make a deal.

I have many friends here in Orlando. They are all helping. You may call any one of them, if you care to help.

Sincerely,

RE: CULLIGAN-SEABIRD Purchase

I was contacted by Mr. Culligan today regarding the above entitled matter. He has been in touch with Florida Diesel and they indicated that it would cost approximately $2,000.00 to bring the engines and engine room into top notch condition.

Mr. Culligan feels that a fair offer, in light of the circumstances, would be $98,000.00. Mr. Culligan will, however, pay the $1,000.00 for the engine repairs that have already been made should the deal close.

As of this afternoon, I have not received the cashier's check from Chase Manhattan. There is however, a call into one of the bank officers, but I have not yet heard from him.

If you should have any questions, please feel free to call.
Thanks again,

[redacted] a white male, date of birth [redacted] Singer Island Hardware, 1217 East Blue Heron Boulevard, Riviera Beach, Florida, telephone number 844-4800, was located at this address and at his suggestion, suggested that the interview take place at his residence, [redacted] Therefore, [redacted] was transported to his residence, [redacted] and the interview commenced. [redacted] at this time furnished the following oral information: b6 b7C

[redacted], has known [redacted] for approximately ten years. With reference to ROLAND BERNARD CULLIGAN, also known to him as BUD CULLIGAN, he believed CULLIGAN was an agent of the Central Intelligence Agency (CIA) and an employee of the United States Government. He refused to make any statement at this time regarding CULLIGAN, advising that after spending six years in the United States Army, in the Intelligence Field, he knew how the United States Government "acted". b6 b7C

During this conversation, he also indicated that he believed the CIA, and the FBI, namely the Federal Bureau of Investigation, are both criminal agents of the United States Government.

At this point, it appeared that the interview was concluded, and upon leaving [redacted] residence, he requested to know how the interviewing agent would report his conversation with him. [redacted] was then advised of the information contained above, at which point he became somewhat irrate and stated he would "walk back" to his place of business, even though the interviewing agent continually offered to take [redacted] back to his place of business. During this time, [redacted] standing in front of his residence, continued b6 b7C to expand on his knowledge of the Intelligence Ne[redacted] in the United States, the workings of the CIA and the FBI and at one point called the now deceased director of the FBI, J. EDGAR HOOVER, a "faggot".

As the interviewing agent attempted to get into his vehicle, [redacted] appeared to have a change of heart and stated that if the interviewing agent would ask him specific questions with relation to CULLIGAN, he would answer same. He then invited the interviewing agent back into his home and furnished the following oral information to the interviewing agent: b6 b7C

He first met ROLAND BERNARD CULLIGAN, also known to him as BUD CULLIGAN, through a friend of [redacted] At that time, [redacted] was working for [redacted] on Singer Island, Riviera Beach, Florida. This was in the spring of 1977. b6 b7C

[redacted] BUD CULLIGAN, stayed at his home for a short period of time, indicating a few weeks, until they got a place of their own. b6 b7C

During this time, CULLIGAN stated that he was an agent of the CIA and an employee of the United States Government, however, his records were destroyed by the agency and they would not acknowledge him because he wanted to retire. CULLIGAN also indicated that his rank in the agency was a Brigadier General in the United States Air Force, attached to the CIA. CULLIGAN advised that he wanted to retire from the agency and the United States Air Force, but they would not let him retire.

Noting that he, [redacted] had six years in the United States Army, working in the intelligence field, namely the Document Section, he could relate to CULLIGAN. However, even if CULLIGAN had not indicated his relationship with the CIA, he still would have in[redacted] him to stay his house, due to [redacted] with [redacted] as they felt sorry for [redacted] b6 b7C

He and [redacted] relationship with the CULLIGANs progressed to a point that they were tired of the harassment by people who CULLIGAN had debts with and CULLIGAN getting into trouble and deeper and deeper in debt. CULLIGAN left of his own accord and moved into an apartment with [redacted] and then had travelled to Orlando, Florida where they lived for a short period of time. It is his understanding that CULLIGAN is now in the Federal Penitentiary in Atlanta, Georgia. b6 b7C

[redacted] reportedly went to school with President JIMMY CARTER's family and is close friends with the family. He does not know which member of the family with whom she reportedly attended school. b6 b7C

At one time, he, [redacted] during the spring of 1977, placed a call to a telephone number in Washington, D. C., given to him by CULLIGAN. This was reportedly the office of [redacted] He spoke with [redacted] and advised that he was trying to get in touch with General CULLIGAN. At first the Secretary did not acknowledge the name, but then put him on hold for a minute. She then transferred the call and he spoke with CULLIGAN, with reference to either a Cadillac he had purchased from Schooley Cadillac in West Palm Beach, Florida or a boat that he was attempting to purchase from Spencer Boat Company, Incorporated, West Palm Beach, Florida. b6 b7C

Also at another time, approximately in May, 1977, he tried to reach CULLIGAN again with reference to the Cadillac and Boat. He called a Special Operator for the CARTER family in Plains, Georgia and asked for General CULLIGAN. They would not acknowledge his name. However, approximately five minutes later, he received a return call from CULLIGAN.

CULLIGAN told them he was put in Prison by the CIA for protective custody and was released because he had a book-ledger giving full details of his activities with the CIA.

He truly believes that CULLIGAN is innocent of most of the charges brought against him, noting that these charges were as a result of pressures put upon CULLIGAN by the CIA.

As a result of his dealings with CULLIGAN, he suffered no monetary loss, however, did suffer a loss of reputation in the community and a loss of time in taking care of CULLIGAN's affairs.

ROLAND BERNARD CULLIGAN was contacted at the place of his confinement, the U. S. Penitentiary, Atlanta, Georgia. He was advised of the identities of the agents conducting the interview and the nature of the investigation. He was advised of his rights by Special Agent [redacted] as stated in a standard Warning and Waiver of Rights form. He stated he read the above-mentioned form, understood his rights, however, declined to execute that form. He did, however, consent to the interview; and he furnished the following information: b6 b7C

He viewed two personal checks, one marked pay to the order of Schooley Cadillac, drawn on the Singer Island National Bank, Riviera Beach, Florida, in the amount of $6,952.00, dated May 20, 1977, and a second item marked pay to the order of Spencer Boat Company, Incorporated - Escrow Account, drawn on the Singer Island National Bank, Riviera Beach, Florida, in the amount of $10,000.00 dated May 17, 1977. He advised that he wrote both of those checks and remitted them to salesmen at the respective companies for which they were made out to. In both instances he advised the salesmen that he dealt with that there was not sufficient funds in the account to cover the check and that the check was to be held pending a future deposit into the checking account. He did not specify to the salesmen the amount of the deposit and he believes no inquiries were made of him by the sales personnel as to identifying data or credit information.

Regarding the check submitted to Schooley Cadillac, the Cadillac was turned over to him by a salesman at that company he identified as [redacted] (Phonetic) and that [redacted] made absolutely no inquiries regarding his credit background or present funds available. [redacted] was satisfied with the knowledge that the deposit would be forthcoming into CULLIGAN's account. There were no inquiries as to the present employment or any other sources of income. At no time during his contact with the salesman at Schooley Cadillac or Spencer Boat Company did he advise the salespeople that he was a member of the armed services or a present or former member of the Central Intelligence Agency. b6 b7C CULLIGAN declined to furnish information as to the source of the funds he anticipated would be placed into his personal checking account, however, indicated that he is involved in a suit against the Central Intelligence Agency (CIA) which is now on file in the Federal Courthouse in Miami, Florida.

When he realized that his anticipated source of funds was not forthcoming, he returned the Cadillac and he feels nobody was the worst for it. He never took possession of the yacht for which the $10,000 check was issued.

CULLIGAN indicated that he believes [redacted] was present while at the Schooley Cadillac Company; however, he was totally responsible for the issuance of the check. However, there was no intent on his part to steal anything or take property that he did not have a rightful claim to. b6 b7C

SPECIMEN	DATE	AMOUNT	SIGNED
Q1	5/17/77	$10,000	R. B. Culligan
Q2	5/20/77	$ 6,952.80	R. B. Culligan
